Dear Kendo Friends!

The last five years our Summer Camp has been a great success. Very nice people from several countries practiced in a pleasant atmosphere. It is a event which is very unique in the landscape of Kendo in Europe. We proudly present

6. International Kendo Summer Camp Berlin

from June 19th to 22th 2013

leaded by Dr. Jörg Potrafki, 7. Dan

Our philosophy involves keiko with friends and enjoy the summer time!
The concrete keiko method intends to learn individual points in a very relaxed training situation. Several high quality teachers and players announced their presence as usual.

The way of teaching contents a clear structure of kihon, shikake/oji-waza and jigeiko. As usual I will ask different teachers for teaching parts of kihon and waza together with me. Please visit our seminar completely. Part time practice is not in the sense of the idea.

The dojo place could be used as sleeping place. Unfortunately everybody who will sleep at the dojo should pay 2,50 EUR per day of accommodation. It is an official regulation, sorry. The members of Kobukai will prepare a simple breakfast desk for the sleeping guests at the dojo.

Low price accommodations are easily to find around the area. An Airport transfer could be arranged for the participants.

Kôbukai - Kendoverein an der Freien Universität Berlin e.V.

Of course the summer is a great time for sightseeing in Berlin, too. And if not, our pool offers the opportunity for swimming.
