

Kôbukai - Kendoverein an der Freien Universität Berlin e.V.

Dear Kendo Friends!

The International Kendo Summer Camp Berlin exists since 2008. Every year it was a great success. Very nice people from several countries practiced Kendo in a pleasant atmosphere, enjoyed life together and the traditional summer party. The quality of teaching was measured by the highest standards for developing serious Kendo contents. Many colleagues from Europe with high Dan qualifications helped to keep it working. Because we are changing our life place we must say goodbye to it. Therefore I present the ...

Definitiv Last International Kendo Summer Camp Berlin 2020

From June 24th to June 28th, 2020

Headline:

One World in Keiko-shiai-shinza

Two particularities for this ultimate event:

Katsuhiko Tani, 63 years, 8th Dan Hanshi, from Japan as special guest!

Tani sensei belongs to the absolute top of the Kendo world in Japan. The IKSC is his first Kendo stage in Germany ever. It is a very great honour for me to present him as guest-teacher.

Dan-Test-Examination will be offered at the end of the seminar for members who like to do it. In examinations usually the successful members are in center. We change the perspective and focus the unfortunate with a feedback if necessary. This test is an option which needs a registration during the seminar and a small fee.

The basic idea of IKSC intends to have keiko with friends and enjoy the summer time. The concrete keiko idea is to learn individual points in a very relaxed training situation. The way of learning contents a clear structure of kihon, shikake/oji-waza and jigeiko. Several high quality players and teachers with 5., 6. and 7. Dan announced their presence as usual. They will advise you in shiai practice, too. Traditionally the keiko ends with the Team-shiai of all participants. The seminar ends with the traditional barbecue in our garden. Please visit our seminar completely. Part time practice is not in the way of this idea.

The dojo area could be used as sleeping place. Unfortunately everybody who will sleep at the dojo should pay 2,50 EUR per day of accommodation. It is official rule, sorry. The members of Kobukai will prepare a simple breakfast for the sleeping guests at the dojo.

Low price accommodations are easily to find around the area. An Airport transfer could be arranged for the participants. Of course the summer is a great time for sightseeing in Berlin, too. And if not, our pool offers a swimming party daily.
